Dear parents/guardians, staff and students,

We write again in connection with our schools' joint production of Calamity Jane this week.

Due to yesterday's government announcement, together with the uncertainty and potential risk associated with storm Barra, tonight's production of Calamity Jane has been postponed.

This performance will now take place at 3.00 p.m. on Saturday, 11 December. Your existing tickets remain valid for this new matinee performance - and requires no further action if this new time/date suits.

If you are unable to attend this matinee performance, please contact the National Opera House box office by 10.00 a.m. on Thursday, 9 December to obtain a refund or credit your account to go towards ticket purchases for future performances.

You can contact the box office directly either by phone 053 91 22 144 or by email boxoffice@nationaloperahouse.ie

To comply with Covid regulations in relation to 50% capacity on indoor entertainment venues, we still require about 55 people to change from Wednesday's performance and 145 from Thursday's performance to either of Saturday's shows, 3.00 p.m. or 7.30 p.m. We really need your help with this matter and invite you to contact the box office to change your ticket/s if possible.

Central to this letter is our hope that the wonderful cast of 80 young people and hugely committed production team will, finally, have the enjoyable and successful run of the show that they so richly deserve.

Yours faithfully,

John Banville and Billy O' Shea,

Principals.
